Anacostia RIVERKEEPER is dedicated to serving as the eyes, ears, voice, and hands of the Anacostia River, engaging in advocacy, enforcement, monitoring, and community involvement for the restoration of the Anacostia River.

Anacostia RIVERKEEPER:

- engages in strong advocacy on behalf of the Anacostia River;
- studies policy and land use decisions that shape the restoration process and impact the river;
- works to identify and stop illegal pollution of the river;
- prevents the destruction of waterfront land, wetlands, and other green spaces;
- unites those who live, play, and work on the Anacostia River to reclaim the river and return it to the healthy ecosystem it once was and can be again.

Join the Effort Today!

Anacostia RIVERKEEPER unites all the voices concerned about the Anacostia River into one, strong voice advocating its restoration.

Anacostia Riverkeeper is in the process of acquiring non-profit 501(c)(3) status and will operate as membership-based organization.
